Please note that in addition to the traditional 999 or 101 we can be contacted on our email address is snafiley@northyorkshire.pnn.police.uk. Please do not report incidents to this email, but if you would like to speak to a member of our team for advice then please use it. Incidents can also be reported direct on www.northyorkshire.police.uk

If an incident of Anti-Social Behaviour occurs which you would like Police to deal with then please report this as soon as possible after the event to allow Officers the best chance to deal with the culprits. Please do not wait until next time you happen to bump into an Officer or Parish Councillor. It allows us to make connections with other incidents and deal with individuals for patterns of behaviour rather than incidents in isolation. It does not matter if no suspects have been seen or cannot be identified; we may have this reported on another nearby incident and be able to link them.

Community Safety Advice

February 2023

With dark nights and dark early mornings, this time of year can have us all struggling a bit with our mental health and trying to remain positive about the future, especially with rising costs and energy bills!

To say “be kind” isn’t always enough and sad to say I’m sure we all know someone who is “pricklier” since COVID set in! So, what I shall say is, put yourself in someone else’s shoes before you think about being critical – do you know their personal circumstances? Probably not, so before passing a snap judgement, just pause for a moment and try to be supportive and give constructive criticism.

My Grandma used to say, “do as you would be done by” and I personally believe that it’s a good mantra to go by .... If you are kind to others, hopefully they will be kind in reciprocation! But you can’t please everyone all the time, I know that only too well LOL.

So, if you are struggling mentally and don’t wish to speak to family about it, here is a list of contact details that will hopefully be of use to you if need be.

The above are but a few organisations that are out there to help you ... “It’s OK not to be OK” as the saying goes and just because we might act big and tough, doesn’t mean to say we are so please get help if you need it, don’t just suffer in silence.

Until next time - #StaySafe out there!
